

Academic Credit for Military Training Policy

As required by RCW 28B.10.057, Walla Walla Community College will award academic credit for military training. Academic credit must be awarded only for training that is applicable to the student's certificate or degree requirements.

The Individual must be enrolled in a public institution of higher education and have successfully completed any military training course or program as part of the military service that is:

- Recommended for credit by a national higher education association that provides credit recommendations for military programs;
- Included in the individual's military transcript issued by any branch of the armed services;
- Documented military training or experience that is substantially equivalent to any course or program offered by the institution of higher education.

ADDENDUM:

1. Per the Veteran's Administration, students using VA education benefits must submit official military transcripts, including any previous college transcripts, to WWCC's Office of Admissions & Records for a credit evaluation prior to the end of a student's 3rd quarter. Students will not be certified for subsequent quarters if transcripts are not received by the 3rd quarter.
2. Some military transfer credit will be subject to external evaluation criteria (e.g. Aviation Maintenance Technician and Professional Pilot).
3. Veteran students using education benefits are not permitted to opt out of prior credit evaluation.
